

Mott Senior Tina Abraham Named 2004 Waterford Junior Miss

October 28, 2003, Waterford, Mich. - Tina Abraham, Mott High School Senior, was named the 2004 Waterford Junior Miss and was awarded a $1000 cash scholarship. Abraham competed against 19 outstanding high school senior girls from Kettering and Mott High Schools, Our Lady of the Lakes, and Oakland Christian.

Abraham also won the $200 Talent Award by playing a piece she arranged on the piano and singing a portion of the selection in the Hindi language. Her clothing selection for her performance was an outfit she had made herself. Abraham will go on to compete in the 2004 Michigan Junior Miss Program in Alpena in February.

Finalists in the competition were Alexa Lindsay, Tiffany Jarois, and Meghan Pace from Mott High School; and Jillian Dettloff and Erin Mallard from Kettering High School. Each of these finalists received a $500 cash scholarship.

The Waterford Junior Miss program recognizes excellence through the on-stage performance and public demonstrations of the abilities of the young women who participate. These performances create community awareness of the contestants and bring to light the characteristics and attributes of today's outstanding youth.

###