On Saturday night, November 6th, the 2005 Waterford Junior Miss Scholarship Program was held in the new Waterford Mott Performing Arts Center. Eleven of the area's most outstanding high school senior girls competed for cash scholarships.

Co-winners of the 2005 Waterford Junior Miss Program, and winners of $1000 cash scholarships are Anna Rooney from Waterford Mott and Jenna Miller from Waterford General Baptist Academy. Jenna Miller also won the $200 Interview Award. Anna performed a cheer - dance for her talent presentation, and Jenna presented a vocal and musical theater selection.

Finalists in the competition were Amanda Smith from Our Lady of the Lakes, Amelia DeVivo from Waterford Mott, and Erin Murphy from Lakeland High School. Each of these contestants will receive a $500 cash scholarship.

Winning $200 cash scholarships were Melissa Lane from Waterford Kettering as the Scholastic Award winner, Lauren Heltsley from Waterford Mott as the Talent Award winner, and Tracy Gabrys from Waterford Kettering as the Spirit of Junior Miss Award winner.

Making their debut from the Class of 2015, and watching closely were fourteen second grade girls from fourteen different elementary schools in Waterford. The "Tender Impressions" sang "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", and presented each of the contestants a flower.

Anna Rooney and Jenna Miller will both go on to compete in the 2005 Michigan Junior Miss Program in Alpena, March 5, 2005.
