

Waterford School District's Destination Imagination Teams Head to State Tournament

March 9, 2005, Waterford, Mich- Waterford School District students competed at the Destination Imagination (DI) Region 1 Tournament, hosted by the Waterford School District. Several Waterford teams qualified for the state tournament April 16 at Central Michigan University. DI is an international problem solving program. Teams of up to seven students have been working on their performances, as well as learning improvisational skills, since November.

The teams heading to state competition are: Mott High School, first place, Radio DI, Team Manager Betsy Grossnickle; Mott High School, second place, Radio DI, Team Manager Michele McDonald; Crary Middle School, first place, Sudden Serendipity, Team Manager Maggi Belsky; Mason Middle School, second place, DIsigning Bridges, Team Manager Deb McFarland; Houghton Elementary School, second place, Radio DI, Team Manager Debbie Wright; and Burt Elementary School, fourth place, Dizzy Derby, Team Manager Meg McCollister.

Other regional team results are: Knudsen Elementary School, fourth place, Radio DI, Team Manager Carol Scudder; Riverside Elementary School, seventh place, Radio DI, Team Manager Amanda Holland; Houghton Elementary School, thirteenth place, Radio DI, Team Manager Anne Nolan; Cooley Elementary School, sixteenth place, Radio DI, Team Manager Crystal Barnett; and Knudsen Elementary School, sixth place, Sudden Serendipity, Team Manager Sophia Marcero. There was also one primary team from Burt Elementary, Team Manager Bonnie McBride.

###