Fifth Annual Charity Staff Show Provides Fun Entertainment

October 27, 2005, Waterford, Mich. – Have you ever wondered what your school principals would look like wearing tights? How about your favorite teachers singing their favorite songs? You will have a chance to see these performances, and many more, when Mott High School hosts its Fifth Annual Charity Staff Show on Friday, November 11, 7:00 p.m., in the Performing Arts Center. Administrators, teachers, custodians, and hall monitors will perform 14 different acts that include skits, poetry/comedy, dances, solos with piano accompaniment, and band performances for the students', staff, and parents' entertainment.

Each year the show is held to raise money for worthy charitable organizations. This year proceeds will benefit the Red Cross Hurricane Relief Effort. The Mott Campus Performing Arts Center is located at 1151 Scott Lake Road, Waterford. The cost is $5 for admission.
