Waterford Board of Education Seeks Parent and Community Input for Superintendent Search

May 31, 2006 Waterford, Mich. – The Waterford Board of Education is seeking input to prepare for the search and selection of the Waterford School District superintendent. A meeting is scheduled on Monday, June 12, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., Kurzman Administration Office, Covert Center, 1150 Scott Lake Road, to seek input from parents and community as to the qualifications and characteristics desirable for a new superintendent.

An electronic Superintendent Assessment Form, ranking the importance of the traits and characteristics a superintendent should possess, is also available for parents and community on the district's website at www.waterford.k12.mi.us. This anonymous survey should be returned by June 30. These forms are also available at the Kurzman Administration Office and each school building for those wishing to pick up a copy. Those should be returned to the Waterford School District, Community Relations Department, 1150 Scott Lake Road, Waterford, MI, 48328 or fax to (248) 681.2503 by June 30, 2006.
