Waterford Senior Center to Celebrate Grand Opening in New Location

September 18, 2006, Waterford, Mich. – On Wednesday, October 11, 10 a.m., - 2:00 p.m., the Waterford Senior Center will celebrate its grand opening in its new location at 3621 Pontiac Lake Road, Leggett Campus. The public grand opening is co-sponsored by Home Instead Senior Care and Lourdes Campus and will be held during a week long celebration of Michigan Aging in Place Week. The grand opening will feature a ribbon cutting ceremony, flag presentation, and flag raising by local veterans. Governor Jennifer M. Granholm, or a representative of her office, will be present to accept an award for her continuing support of Michigan Aging in Place Week. The day will also include tours of the new facility, refreshments, entertainment, sponsor recognition, and door prizes.

The Waterford Senior Center is inviting businesses to join the business sponsorship program designed to offer several levels of tax-deductible participation. If you know of any businesses that may want to become a sponsor, please have them contact Colleen Burke at 248.673.1720.

The Waterford Senior Center's new business phone number is 248.682.9450.
