Waterford Mott AP Scholars Recognized

January 15, 2007 Waterford, Mich. – Ten Mott High School students have earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program (AP) Exams. The College Board's Advanced Placement Program offers students the opportunity to take challenging college-level courses while still in high school, and to receive college credit, advanced placement, or both for successful performance on the AP Exams. About 18% of the more than one million high schools students in more than 15,000 secondary schools worldwide took AP Exams performed at a sufficiently high level to merit the recognition of AP Scholar.

AP Scholar with Distinction Awards were given for earning an average grade of at least 3.5 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on five more on these exams:

Hannah Johnson

The AP Scholar with Honor Award is earned for receiving an average grade of at least 3.25 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more of these exams:

Zachary Pounders

AP Scholar Awards were given for completing three or more AP Exams, with grades of 3 or higher:

Meghan Codd, Evan Johnson, Darcy Malin, Morgan Marentic, Jahnvi Patel, Erik Shreefel, Douglas Sutherland, and Raluca Szabo.

Most of the nation's colleges and universities award credit, advanced placement, or both based on successful performance on the AP Exams. More than 1,400 award a full year's credit (sophomore standing) to students presenting a sufficient number of qualifying grades.
