Kettering High School Teacher Patricia Cascioli Named Waterford Foundation Teacher of the Year

May 20, 2010, Waterford, Mich. – Kettering High School Teacher Patricia

Cascioli was selected as the Waterford Foundation Teacher of the Year.

Waterford Teacher of the Year is sponsored by the Waterford Foundation for Public Education and Suburban Ford. As Waterford Foundation Teacher of the Year, Cascioli received free use of a vehicle of her choice from Suburban Ford for one year and will be honored, along with other nominees, at the Excellence in Education Reception in June.

Cascioli began her teaching career at Pierce Middle School in 1996. She began working at Kettering High School in 2006, where she teaches biology. During her tenure, Cascioli was a science curriculum leader, served on several District curriculum and assessment committees, mentored new teachers, and is currently the Kettering varsity cross country and track coach.

The Teacher of the Year Award is a way of affirming the value the Waterford community places on educational excellence and the critical role the classroom teacher plays in providing it.
