Waterford Board of Education Accepts Proposal to Conduct Superintendent Search

June 7, 2010, Waterford, Mich. – The Waterford Board of Education approved the recommendation to accept a proposal from North Star Staffing to conduct a Superintendent search. Superintendent Robert Neu has accepted a position in Federal Way, Washington and will leave his current position on June 30, 2010. Assistant Superintendent of Business & Human Resources Thomas Wiseman was appointed Interim Superintendent effective July 1, 2010.

North Star Staffing provides staffing assistance to school districts searching for qualified administrative individuals, including executive searches under the direction of Dr. Carl Hartman. Dr. Hartman, who for the past 12 years, has served as director of the superintendent search department for the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB). During his tenure, Dr. Hartman assisted over 200 school boards in filling superintendent vacancies.

North Star Staffing will work with the Waterford Board of Education to establish timelines, develop selection criteria, and conduct employee, parent, and community input sessions. Timelines and community input sessions will be announced when these are put in place.
