Waterford School District, Waterford Township, and Media Network Partner to Launch New Video Streaming on Web Channels Also Available on AT&T U-Verse

February 17, 2010, Waterford, Mich. – The Waterford School District, Waterford Township, and Media Network of Waterford are pleased to announce that Channel 22, Channel 20, and Channel 10 programming is now available through streaming video on each respective web sites. Viewers may now watch programming offered on these three channels via their computer. The web site addresses for the channels are:

Waterford School District Educational Channel 22                      www.waterford.k12.mi.us

Waterford Township Municipal Channel 20                              www.twp.waterford.mi.us

Media Network of Waterford Public Access Channel 10                      www.wtv10.org

“This allows our Waterford residents many more opportunities to keep in touch with their community regardless of their multi-media service, said Superintendent Robert Neu. Residents now have the opportunity to watch live School and Township Board Meetings, local events, and receive community information from anywhere in the world.”

In addition, all three channels are now available on AT& T U-Verse, which serves Lapper, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw, and Wayne Counties. Viewers simply access channel 99 and select Waterford community programming to view the programming. Funding for this new service is provided through PEG (Public, Education, Government) franchise fees collected from AT&T subscribers.
